- CAREERS WORKING GROUP
 - Tugis Conference - Emerging Professionals Outreach – Preparing for a Geospatial Career
 - A half-day panel session. A great opportunity to meet prior to the Tugis conference with the pro's that will be in attendance.
 - This will be the stage to begin networking and discussing how the young professionals can interact with established professionals in the area.
 - Many MSGIC established work force professionals will be available to discuss opportunities and guidance as well as share experiences.
 - Review of resumes for guidance.
 - A great opportunity to network!!
 - Supported by MSGIC – Careers Working Group...what is that??
 - Our purpose is to facilitate and foster the transition of emerging young GIS professionals from the class room into the established professional workforce.
 - Looking to connect the established business professionals with the young professionals in the area.
 - Our goal is to get emerging professionals involved in navigating today's workforce, through mentoring, networking, career guidance.
